

CAMP SPOFFORD SUMMER STAFF

Explorer Director

Job Description: The Explorer Director is a seasonal, summer role responsible for overseeing the programming for the 8-12 year old Family Camp guests. They take part in developing the schedule, facilitating the activities, while adding spiritual guidance during the week. It is important to create a fun, inviting atmosphere, while also understanding the responsibility of being in charge of a large group of elementary and middle school age children. The Explorer Director reports to the Program Director.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Create and implement the Explorer program with the help of the Program Director
- Meet with the Program Director to discuss problems, schedules, camp in general, and share specific prayer needs
- Lead devotions and be ready to apply biblical truths to the lives of campers
- Meet parents and families at the beginning of the week (Sunday evening) to introduce yourself, the weekly schedule, and distribute sign-up sheets
- Prepare for day trips: call ahead, get accurate information, find drivers, help make bag lunches if needed
- Work one night per week in Knutes cafe

QUALIFICATIONS

- Ideally be a college student or be between the ages of 18-23
- Outgoing and welcoming personality to involve as many kids as possible
- Must exhibit a genuine love for kids with a willingness to serve their interests before their own
- Must be capable of leading multiple large group activities a day
- Have a mature, personal commitment to Jesus Christ as evidenced in their daily life
